Company Profile

Monneli – Modern Factory is a multinational local manufacture established in communion with Monneli Italy to build material products and finishes for all types of uses. Monneli was founded in Italy and has been expanding its reach across the globe. Monneli-Modern Factory's mission is to provide building solutions to local consultants and contractors in Qatar by assembling full line of products including cementitious products from renders, tile adhesives to chemical ones such as concrete repair and surface treatment. We provide technical support on all ranges of materials built and assistance from our sales and specification team.
